OSAA/OMEA Music Etiquette Guidelines

The Oregon School Activities Association, in cooperation with the Oregon Music Educators Association, has adopted the following guidelines for audience etiquette. These guidelines will be enforced at all OSAA-sponsored concerts, festivals, and competitions. They reflect behavior that assures courtesy to the performers and audience members alike.

- Concentrate your attention fully on the music.
- Do not talk or listen to audience members who talk while music is being played/sung.
- Applaud courteously at the end of the selection. Applause between movements of a work is not appropriate. Whistling and yelling are not appropriate at formal concerts. If you feel that a group gave a particularly exceptional performance, a standing ovation is an appropriate acknowledgment.
- Avoid making motions or noises which might distract other audience members or performers. Examples of distractions include (but are not limited to) audible foot tapping, bubble blowing, passing notes, conducting, the rustling of candy/cough drop wrappers, and jingling of jewelry.
- OSAA strives to provide exceptional performance venues at its competitions. Most concert auditoriums prohibit food or beverages inside the hall, and participants will respect this rule, whether or not it is posted.
- When entering or exiting the auditorium or performance room, do so only between ensembles, or if at state solo competition, between soloists.
- Do nothing which will interrupt or distract a judge or contest official from their duties. Allow them to focus their full attention on the performances. Enforce a quiet area around judges during time between performances when they are completing their evaluations.
- Listen for the beauty in the music, not the mistakes. Tell the performers what you enjoyed about their performance.
- Student musicians are reminded to please support the other performing groups with your attention and applause. As audience members and members of musical groups, treat the other performers as you would wish to be treated.

Frequently Asked Questions Regarding Parking At LaSells Stewart Center & CH2M Hill Alumni Center

Where may I park?

- The Visitor Parking Lot is the paved parking lot across 26th Street from the LaSells Stewart Center, south of Reser Stadium.
- This is “pay and display” lot from 7 AM to 5 PM Monday through Friday.
- The parking lot entrance is off Western Blvd, just west of 26th Street.
- Visitor permits can be used in any visitor or student lot on the Oregon State University campus (see parking map).

Where do I pay for parking permits?

- There are three “pay and display” stations around Reser Stadium for one-day parking permits. The “pay and display” stations will provide parking permits to be placed on the dash of the vehicle.
- The pay stations accept cash or Visa, MasterCard, and Discover Cards.
- Two-hour meters are available directly across 26th Street from the LaSells Stewart Center for event attendees and campus visitors.

What do I do with the visitor parking permit?

- The visitor parking permit must be prominently displayed on the dash of the vehicle parked in the lot. Your parking permit gives clear instructions.

I bought a permit but I am parked at a meter, is that OK?

- No. A parking permit is for un-metered spaces. If you park at a meter you must feed the meter. You do not need a “pay-and-display” permit to park at a meter.

Is there additional parking if the visitor lot is full?

- There is additional parking west of the visitor lot in the Reser Parking Lot where parking permits are required. This is a visitor, student, or staff parking lot.
- Pay stations are located along this lot around the stadium’s periphery.

Is there any free parking?

- On weekends and evenings (after business hours) the parking in Staff, Student, or Visitor lots is free and open to the public (excluding football game days).

Where may I NOT park?

- There is no parking in areas designated with a restricted parking sign or where normal standard State of Oregon parking restrictions apply (i.e. Yellow/ red stripping, fire hydrants etc.).

I have an OSU Student / Staff permit. Can I park in the visitor parking lot?

- Only if you purchase a visitor parking permit to park in the visitor lot. Student or staff parking signs designates areas where your student or staff permit will be honored.
- No. Only vehicles with “pay and display” permits may park in the LaSells Stewart Center Visitor parking lot. Students and Staff permits are valid only in the areas with student and staff signage.

Where is there ADA parking?

- There are several ADA parking spaces along the east side of the visitor parking lot on 26th Street. ADA spaces require both an appropriate OSU (visitor, staff, or student) permit and a valid DMV placard. With a valid DMV placard you may park free at any 1- or 2- hour meter. An OSU parking permit is required between the hours of 7am – 5pm, Monday through Friday.
- The Reser lot visitor pay stations are ADA accessible.

Where can I find a Campus Map?

- Maps are available at the parking website: Oregonstate.edu/admin/facilities/parking.

- Where can they not park? In handicapped spaces, yellow/red zones, or blocking entrances and exits to any parking area or street.
- If a group is coming with buses (in a Van) do they need parking permits? Yes, unless they have “E” plates on the vehicle.
- What is the standard operation procedure for Parking Services to deal with a bus parked in the wrong spot? Generally the drivers remain with the vehicle and we will ask them to move and direct them to the correct area.

Do government or other campus vehicles need permits?

- Do vehicles with other campus staff parking permits need to purchase a parking permit? OSU honors parking permits from U of O and Cascades Campus.

- Do government vehicles need to purchase a parking permit? If government vehicles have “E” plates or “US” plates, they do not need to obtain a permit for a one day event, if longer they will need to purchase the proper permit. They will need to pay the parking meters if parking there.
